Fun day helps South celebrate a season to remember

Edinburgh South celebrated a successful 2021 season with a fun day at their Inch Park when awards were handed out. The 1st XI was promoted to East Division 1 and also won the Terry Newcombe Trophy, while the 2nds won Division Seven. The club was able to revive its 3rd XI for the first time in years and such was the level of interest in the game, South even loaned out squad members to rival clubs who were a player or two short. Players' player: 1st XI, Nabkishore Pani; 2nd XI, Paul Reddish; 3rd XI, Jaskaran Singh. Captain's player: 1st XI, Vipin Gupta; 2nd XI, Russell Barnard; 3rd XI, Sharan Reddy. Most runs: Nabkishore Pani. Most wickets: Farhan Sheikh. Most improved: Daniel Saunders. Outstanding youth player: Harry Barratt. Women's development player of the year: - Dorcas Owen.

Young Hanna enjoys summer of success

Hanna Augustynski, of Craigmillar Park tennis club, is one to keep an eye on after a stunning summer of success. At the age of 11, Hanna won her club's senior ladies champion while she was recently part of a Scotland team which won a UK team title in the 12 and under age-group. Other successes for the youngster include winning the Scottish round of the Road to Wimbledon event - which qualified her to play on the hallowed courts in South-West London - as well as the Scottish closed under-12s.
