

SPORT

SPORT

Community Sport with Bill Lothian

CONTACT US
 For Up Your Street, Photo Gallery and Household Shopping, e-mail community@edinburghnews.com or phone Julie Douglas on 0131-311 7540. For Grassroots Sport, e-mail billlothian1008@gmail.com or phone Bill Lothian on 07730 303475

Beautiful South celebrate divisional triumph in the East

Edinburgh South 2nds cricket team edged home in Division Seven of the Baillie & Gifford East League by only 0.56 percentage points from runners-up, Dunfermline Carnegie 2nds. Top run-maker was Paul Reddish with 252, while bowlers Aaron Mundin and Jaskaran Singh each claimed 15 league wickets. Paul Reddish had the team's best batting average of 42. Pictured at net practice are, back row, from left, Sam Kiely, Phil Griffiths, Russell Barnard, Aaron Mundin (captain), Kalyan Kallamadi, Prabhneet Singh, Jaskaran Singh (holding the bat at the end). Front row kneeling, Akshansh Tiwari, Dibayendu Dey, Anura Suriyapperuma and Karamjit Singh. Adding to an excellent season for the Inch Park club the 1st XI gained promotion to Division One as runners-up to Leith FAB.

Edinburgh South 2nds won ten and lost only two of their 12 completed fixtures.

Georgia, above and below, will have her matches streamed on Scottish Squash's Facebook page <https://bit.ly/3DT8eJ> as well as u-tube channels.

Georgia loving a 'year full of challenges'

Edinburgh squash professional Adderley, 20, has qualified to play at the historic Springfield Scottish Open in Inverness this weekend. The event is Scotland's flagship squash tournament attracting some of the world's top players over five days. Georgia, who has won the NM Academy Open, Hit and Run Sport Challenger and

City of Peterborough Open said: "It was a big step up to the senior PSA Tour, but I'm really pleased with my progress. 2020 was a year full of challenges but (with) a lot of personal growth."

The Murrayfield players are all set for the new Edinburgh and Lothians

Krzysztof is king of the table at Murrayfield

table tennis league which gets underway this week. Picture: Tommy Toner

Murrayfield table tennis club tuned up for the new league season with their annual championship at Royal High School. Krzysztof Borkowicz defeated top seed John Hannah 3-1 in an exciting final and picked up the Roger Thomas Quaich won by Hannah the previous year.

Gordon Muir and youngster Charlie McGowan were the losing semi-finalists. In the final of the women's event Emma Qu defeated Anna Porsch 3-0.

Heber and Fawcett gear up for Varsity match

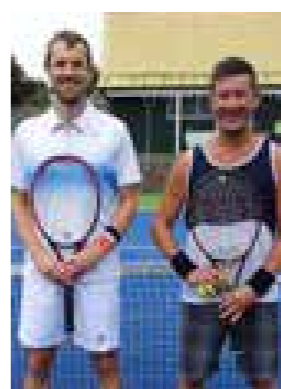

Ben Heber, left, and Tom Fawcett are expected to be in the Edinburgh University rugby team which resumes rivalry with St Andrews Uni on Saturday. Played behind closed doors, the match can be watched at: <http://scottishvarsitymatch.com/> Picture: Elli Martin, Univ. of Edin.

Top-Flight display wins seniors title

Ian Kent, above, won the Dudley bowling club championship for the first time. The senior competition was won by Graham Flight, left. Meanwhile, as part of a local "Doors Open" day, Whitehouse & Grange Bowling Club will be open to the public from 12:30 - 4pm on Sunday.

Game, set and match for champion trio

Richard Miller, left in white, defeated Cal Barclay to win the men's singles title at Corstorphine Tennis Club. At St Serfs, Neil Harden, above, took the men's singles honours and is pictured with women's champion Hazel Reid. At the South Queensferry club Claire Bailie, right, reigned supreme in the women's singles.

Capital players represent Scotland in launching new lacrosse tournament

The Edinburgh-based men who were in the Scotland squad for an inaugural sixes tournament at Peffermill also featuring England and Wales. Back Row: Tom Hughes, Mason Robbins, Mike Rushworth, Ben Robertson (all Edinburgh City), Jack Miles (Edinburgh University). Front: Martin Crawford, Mike Barclay, Sebastian Howarth (all Edinburgh City)